Discussion Questions:

1. Of the 5 Resources discussed from Deut. 6:4-9, which ones come most naturally for you and how do you do that?
2. Of the same 5 Resources, which ones take the most effort and work for you? What would you need to change to be more effective with providing these resources to your children?
3. Of the 5 Resources, which ones do your children need the most at this time in their lives? What can you start doing to help them grow in these areas?
4. Discuss the three characteristics of righteous children. What do these look like in your family?
5. Update your "Prayer Journal" with requests especially for your children and for lessons you are learning about parenting.
6. Spend the last 10 minutes in prayer together over these issues.
